Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

CONGRATULATIONS!

Fr John Walsh's Ruby Jubilee

Today, Sunday 19th June, is the actual the date of his ruby jubilee and Fr John hopes to be with us at the 11am Mass at St John's with some of his family and friends. We will add to the collection for his charity and there will be time to greet him after Mass.

The morning Mass on Thursday at English Martyrs was a wonderful occasion.

Fr John has to be back at St Winifred's for a friends and family lunch.

Parish Talk last Tuesday on

"Restorative Justice"

Was very informative but also entertaining event – so much so that those present invited Phil back for a second episode (watch for it!)

A Parishioner is kindly offering this help:

"Are you 65 or over? Do you have problems with daily life such as dressing, walking, climbing stairs, preparing meals, dealing with medication or other affairs? If so, for a confidential chat with someone who has knowledge of financial help available, speak to Fr Peter who can pass you to a parishioner who can help

SUNDAY COFFEE

We had a test-drive of our Sunday morning coffee after 11am Mass last week – thanks to brewers it went well in our new 'Jubilee Marquee'.

We hope to be able to follow this up each week of summer – providing it is not storming! – so come along. We do need, of course, some more volunteers to set up and brew, please.

Diocesan News:

It was announced last week that Fr Andrew Allman, who has carried quite a load as the priest at St Clare's Preston and Priest Chaplain at Preston Royal Infirmary, has been appointed Vice Rector at the Senior Seminary at Oscott (Birmingham). Many parishioners have spoken of him as they have 'visited' his on-line Masses over lockdown.

St Clare's have, for years, hosted 'Days of Renewal' and the next one is next Saturday from 10am to 4pm led by Fr Pat Deegan on "The Good Shepherd".

CAFOD Lenten Parish Donation

I have had a letter of thanks from CAFOD for the £810 sent to them from us over Lent. CAFOD will be one of the many charities which suffer whilst, although we come out of COVID we enter recession

Transport to Church

Now that people are feeling safer to come back to Sunday Mass there are some who have discovered they are a little older and creak a bit! However a number could join us if someone close to could pick them up. I have noticed that people in Poulton hold off offering because they 'are away now and again' – its OK, if you are away that's just now and again! I have been contacted by a new resident in Hambleton – can anyone help at all?

Welcome to all parishioners and visitors to our Parish today and throughout the week

What did you do during lockdown? Angela produced this! Available now (Paper & Kindle) on Amazon.

Parish Social Planning Group – is meeting this Thursday at 7pm in the presbytery. It is open to anyone with ideas – even from English Martyrs.

News from Malawi:

news from Malawi is that the cost of living crisis is even worse there - the Kwacha has just been devalued by 25%. Latest from Fr Alfred: It is now survival of the fittest. The devaluation has not helped. Prices have escalated. I was at Shoprite this afternoon. Prices of soap and everything have almost doubled. There is an imminent fuel price hike again.

English Martyrs Malawi Group: Beetle Drive on Thursday June 30th at 2pm in English Martyrs' Hall, admission £2.50 (ticket or pay at the door), tea and biscuits, raffle. All welcome, no previous experience needed. Prices are rising in Malawi as everywhere and what we raise will keep funding the porridge for the nursery school, which now has 100 children registered.

Lark Hill Meeting

Any past pupils of Lark Hill Convent School, Preston are invited to come to Cardinal Newman College on Saturday 25th June for a Mass at 2.30pm in the Chapel followed by a get together. This is a chance to meet up with friends and there will be opportunity to explore the College on the Lark Hill site.

The Parish 'ALPHA' Course.

The course to share our faith in who Jesus is for us began yesterday. It is good to see both those parishioners who wish to organise this and share their faith – and also people who are taking on the challenge to broaden their faith. If you could not make it yet then please listen to people and join in whenever you can.

Some people have remarked at how wonderful it is to be able to come together to talk about Jesus in this way – do come and join in.

Hospital Visiting

Last week it was announced that the Trust's visiting guidelines have been relaxed further, and are now not very different to pre-pandemic arrangements. In the A&E department, patients, and those waiting to be seen, are now allowed one person to accompany them. Generally, out-patients may be accompanied by another person, and in-patients may have two visitors for one of two two-hour visiting slots. Full details are available at: Visiting and outpatients | Blackpool Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust \(bfwh.nhs.uk\)

Feeding the Fleetwood Food Bank

We are hearing of the increasing difficulties many are finding during the present financial crisis – please do continue to donate at the back of church. (They report they are in need of Toilet rolls, sugar and Something else I have forgotten)
