Sunday 26th June 2022

Thirteenth Sunday of the Year

Do you represent the parish in any particular for which you may feel you need to be police checked for your own safety?

People who work as catechists or Children's Liturgists may regard this as obvious, but sometimes there are individuals who are overlooked – If you feel you fit into this category please speak to one of the Parish Officers for guidance. We do not want anyone to feel they are not given safety.

PARISH SAFEGUARDING

As we begin to open up our parish ministries and events after lockdown it is a good time to check our safety as a community. Peter Embery has been our Safeguarding Officer for a number of years and we thank him for his service to us. Could be also thank two people who volunteered just before COVID and are now starting to make sure we are safe. They are:

Jayne Clark and Michael Muldoon.

They will be speaking to us as Mass in the next weeks. (We are part of the Diocesan Safeguarding Department, which in turn is part of the Catholic Church in England & Wales)

Keeping Children, Young People and Vulnerable adults safe in our care.

We know how important this is in our communities and it is vital that we know the people who work with our people – and that they know how to be safe with them. Most people will know about this through your own work and social groups.

Keeping our Ministers Safe.

'Safeguarding' is also about protecting our own ministers safe from allegations, also. When we are officially working for the Parish we need to be aware of being seen to be safe people. (We know what it is like to open the door to people we don't know who say they are from an organisation we have not heard of!). As a Church we have an obligation to protect ourselves and those who represent our parish.

"Letting 'baddies' know we are watching"

There are some ways of letting 'unseemly' visitors to our church or groups know that we are aware of people who can endanger our children or vulnerable adults. The first way we can do this is for all of us to be honest about the reality of abusers in society and be aware of keeping each other safe (As you would not leave your handbag on the bench in front of strangers as you go to communion?).

Another way for giving messages to abusers is to have things about church which let them know they should 'go somewhere else'! One method I have used in many parishes is to have a parish statement on view which is agreed by all parishioners (not just those with specific ministries) which clearly outlines the fact that Safeguarding is part of our way of acting – and that we are not naïve about abuse and criminality. Could you agree with this statement?

"As members of the parish communities of St John the Evangelist & The English Martyrs, Poulton, we are eager to proclaim Christ's Gospel of Life and Hope to all.

As God's people we aim to protect all individuals whilst in our care and on our premises, from physical, emotional and sexual abuse – especially children, young people and those of any age who are vulnerable.

We welcome and encourage the development of a climate of trust and openness, and the building of a safe environment for all."

Welcome to all parishioners and visitors to our Parish today and throughout the week

All welcome, no previous experience needed. To raise money for Malawi Project.

Parish Social Planning

It was reported this week that a parishioner said "without social events parishes die". This is why this group is so important – it met this week.

11am Tea & Coffee – is going well especially last week's which hosted Fr Walsh's family! But we need more volunteers to serve. (It will be cancelled if the weather is inclement)

Malawi Beetle-Drive – see above.

"Restorative Justice – Phil part II" – So enjoyable was 'Phil part I' That he has been invited to continue: Tuesday 19th July at 1.30pm

Summer Holidays – a space for rest

Parish Walks – this was begun before lockdown with an enjoyable historical wander around Poulton (remember?). We have had the offer of a historical walk around the fishing town of Fleetwood by someone who lives there and knows about it. This would probably be an event which could interest families and others on a Sunday afternoon after the school starts in September? Talk about it, could go crabbing?

Thursday afternoon Talks – We have a good list of interesting people and topics who, hopefully, would be available to join us at what have become regular afternoon gatherings for listening, discussing and eating cake.

We hope this feeds philosophical parishioners.

The Parish 'ALPHA' Course.

The course to share our faith in who Jesus is for us began yesterday. It is good to see both those parishioners who wish to organise this and share their faith – and also people who are taking on the challenge to broaden their faith. If you could not make it yet then please listen to people and join in whenever you can.

Some people have remarked at how wonderful it is to be able to come together to talk about Jesus in this way – do come and join in.
